Insurance Information

Insurance information

All rental cars must have Collision Damage Waiver (CDW) and Theft Protection (TP). Each policy will be either:

- included or
- purchasable from the rental company, or
- provided by another company (e.g. your credit card company).

Collision Damage Waiver (CDW)

If the car's bodywork gets damaged, the most you'll pay towards repairs covered by the Collision Damage Waiver is the damage excess. This cover is only valid if you stick to the terms of the rental agreement. It doesn't cover other parts of the car (e.g. glass, wheels, interior, roof or undercarriage), or charges (e.g. for towing or off-road time), or anything in the car (e.g. child seats, GPS devices or personal belongings).

Theft Cover

If the car is stolen, the most you'll pay towards replacement costs covered by the policy is the theft excess. This cover is only valid if you stick to the terms of the rental agreement.

Skip to main content lity (TPL)

Covers the driver's liability for any injuries and property damage that are included in the policy. It does not cover injuries to the driver or damage to the rental car. This cover is only valid if you stick to the terms of the rental agreement.

Loss or Damage

If the car is stolen, or seriously damaged, or damaged in an incident involving someone else, please contact the rental company and the police immediately. If you can't provide the necessary documents from the police, you'll be liable for the full cost of replacing/repairing the car. If the car gets slightly damaged, and no-one else is involved, please contact the rental company immediately.

The rental company is not liable for the loss of / theft of / damage to any belongings in the car, during or after the rental.

Damage to the car will be charged for by the car hire company after it is dropped off - and will incur a Damage Administration fee on top of the amount deducted from the excess.

Not included in the rental cover (CDW & TP)

Loss of / theft of / damage to: keys, aerials, jack, safety triangles and vests, windscreen wipers, petrol cap, luggage covers, or any other fixed or mobile component of the car.

Deposits, excess and cover

Fuel policy

Fuel Policies

Skip to main content

Like for like

When you pick your car up, the fuel tank will be full or partly full. You will leave a deposit to cover the cost of the fuel: the counter staff will block this money on your credit card. Just before you return your car, please replace the fuel you've used.

The fuel tank will be either full or part-full. When you pick the car up, please check how much fuel there is. On return, as long as you've replaced the fuel you've used, you'll pay no fuel fees.

If you return your car with less fuel than it had when you picked it up, the car hire company will keep some or all of your deposit to cover the missing fuel. This will cost you more than you would pay to refill the tank yourself. As well as the cost of the fuel itself, you will pay a non-refundable fuel service charge of €35.00 including tax.

If there's any fuel missing when you drop your car off, you'll be charged both a refuelling fee and the cost of the missing fuel (at the current market price per litre/gallon).

E-cars

Your car will be charged when you pick it up (approx. 80%), and you may need to leave a deposit for the recharging cable. When you drop the car off, please make sure it is charged, as per the rental agreement. If not, there may be additional towing/breakdown charges in case it runs out of charge on the way to the recharge station.

What you need at Pick-up

Acceptable forms of payment

The main driver must be in possession of either a Credit Card or a Debit Card in their own name when picking up the car. The Card must have enough available funds to cover the excess / deposit amount. If the customer is using a debit card, the amount will be taken; if using a credit card, the amount will merely be 'blocked'. Either way, the deposit will be returned after the rental, as long as all conditions have been met. The Card will also be required to pay for local fees, extra equipment and anything purchased additionally at the car hire counter.

Rules around payment cards

neobanks (online-only banks) are not accepted.

Credit cards need to be activated for international transactions and for payments abroad.

You'll need to know the PIN of the payment card you are planning to use to pre-authorise your deposit.

The credit card used for the security deposit and extras has to be issued in the customer's country of residence.

The credit card must have a chip.

Visa Electron cards are not accepted

The full name of the main driver needs to be displayed on the front side of the card.

It is each driver's responsibility to find out what paperwork they need before driving in another country. For example, you may need a visa and/or International Driving Permit as well as your driving licence.
